

I do not believe that banks should have the power nor the privilege of disregarding our do-not-call law here in Indiana. I like the form and wording of our present law.